CONTINUATION OF THE MARCH TO JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI

The march from Memphis, Tennessee, to Jackson, Mississippi, which was started by James H. Meredith on June 5, 1966, has been continued by nationally known civil rights leaders since Meredith was shot near Hernando, Mississippi. On the morning of June 15, 1966, the individuals who had spent the night in tents, which had been erected the previous day in an area near a Negro public school in Grenada, Mississippi, were served a breakfast at the Bell Flower Baptist Church. Although previous information indicated the march might not continue on June 15, 1966, after breakfast, the individuals formed a column and began marching west from Grenada on highway seven with an announced destination of Holcomb, Mississippi. Fannie Lou Hamer of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party led the group as they departed from Grenada.

At 4:15 p.m., the marchers arrived at a point one-half mile northwest of Holcomb, Mississippi, where their tents had been erected in an open area near a Negro public school. The number of marchers fluctuated during the day, the highest number at any one time reaching 140, 30 of whom were white. After a short rest stop at the tentsite, 34 of the marchers again returned to the highway and marched an additional two miles, after which they were returned to the tentsite by truck.

Martin Luther King, Jr., Floyd McKissick, National Director of the Congress of Racial Equality; and Andy Young of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference joined the marchers after lunch. King, McKissick, and Young, after leading the marchers for a short time, left the group and drove to Charleston, Mississippi, where they conducted a voter registration rally. After the rally, about 300 Negroes were led by King to the Tallahatchie County Courthouse in Charleston. King and his group left Charleston at 3:30 p.m., at which time, 50 persons were waiting in line to register to vote.

During the evening of June 15, 1966, Martin Luther King, Jr., spoke to a group of approximately 350 persons at the United Baptist Church in Cleveland, Mississippi. King urged all of the Negroes to register and vote. After the rally in Cleveland, King departed to spend the night in Memphis, Tennessee.

PROPOSED FUTURE ACTIVITIES

b7D [REDACTED] advised yesterday that before the march began the leaders announced a new itinerary. He said representatives of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, the Congress of Racial Equality, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party, at a meeting, had decided to march through the Mississippi delta area rather than continue to Jackson on highway 51. This new itinerary will take the marchers through Greenwood, Belzoni, and Yazoo City before returning to highway 51 at Canton, Mississippi. The leaders plan to arrive at Jackson for a mass rally at the courthouse on June 26, 1966.

[REDACTED] Wendolyn Green, Executive Director of the Western Christian Leadership Conference, announced that plans are being made for a chartered flight from Los Angeles on June 20, 1966, to Jackson, Mississippi, to support the "James Meredith March." Mrs. Green stated that Marlon Brando, Sammy Davis, Jr., Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward, and Steve Allen are among the well-known "movie personalities" who will join the march.

PUERTO RICAN RIOT AREA, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, REMAINS CALM BUT TENSE

In Chicago, Illinois, the riot-torn area in the Puerto Rican district remained calm but tense during the past 24 hours. The Chicago Police Department continued to maintain heavy police patrols in the area and allowed no loitering, demonstrations, or gatherings of any kind. One Puerto Rican was arrested for a traffic violation.

Various civic leaders continued to work in the trouble area attempting to reduce tension. Several members of the Puerto Rican community have requested assistance from the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. James Orange, a Southern Christian Leadership Conference staff worker in Chicago, sponsored a meeting at his headquarters last evening which was attended by about 100 persons, 60 of whom were Puerto Ricans. The meeting, which was in Spanish, dealt with police brutality. Charles J. Krop, Director of the Cardinal's Committee for Spanish Speaking People, a Catholic welfare organization, advised yesterday that tension in the trouble area has been reduced but that the potential for violence still exists. He stated that he believes the area will become stabilized unless the Southern Christian Leadership Conference agitates the residents in the area.

Specimens Q1 through Q4 were also compared with specimens Q1 and Q2 in Bureau File 9-24780, a case entitled "UNSUB; JACK ROOSEVELT ROBINSON aka JACKIE - VICTIM; EXTORTION," submitted by the St. Louis Division, but it was not possible to reach a definite conclusion as to whether the instant specimens were prepared by the writer of the evidence submitted in the ROBINSON case.

The New York Division should consider itself office of origin in this investigation.

A separate report will be submitted on the fingerprint examination conducted on specimens Q1 through Q4. At this time Q1 through Q4 will be returned to the New York Division. Photographs are retained in the Laboratory.

The questioned hand printing on Q1 and Q2 was also compared with the hand printing appearing on specimens Q2 through Q4 in the case entitled "Unknown Subjects; [REDACTED] Brooklyn Dodgers; Victim - Extortion," which were submitted to the Laboratory by the New York Division under date of September 21, 1953, but it was not possible to reach a definite conclusion as to whether the hand printing on the instant specimens was prepared by the writer of the hand printing on evidence submitted in the [REDACTED] case because of the lack of sufficient similar word and letter combinations and the fact that there appear to be some dissimilarity in the hand printing on the evidence submitted in the [REDACTED] case. The handwriting appearing on evidence submitted in the [REDACTED] case is not comparable with the hand printing on the instant specimens.

A complete report will be submitted on the findings of the investigation to the Board of Directors of the company.

By letter dated September 23, 1953, the FBI Lab advised that it had examined the handprinting appearing on the instant extortion note and containing envelope with the handprinting appearing on the note submitted by the New York Division in the case entitled, "UNKNOWN SUBJECT, [REDACTED] Brooklyn Dodgers - VICTIM; EXTORTION". The Lab advised that it was not possible to reach a definite conclusion as to whether the handprinting on the instant specimens was prepared by the writer of the handprinting of evidence submitted in the [REDACTED] case due to the lack of sufficient similarity in word and letter combinations and also to the fact that there appeared to be some disguise in the handprinting in the evidence submitted in the [REDACTED] case.

The Lab further advised that they had compared the instant specimens with other specimens submitted by the Cincinnati Division in the case entitled, "UNKNOWN SUBJECT, JACK ROOSEVELT ROBINSON - VICTIM; EXTORTION" which specimens were submitted to the Lab on [REDACTED] 1951. The Lab advised that the specimens submitted by the Cincinnati Division were not prepared by means of a ruler and were not considered as being prepared by the same person as the instant specimens.
